

Call for Consultancy Work

(Published in Company website on 28th October 2024)

Lakshya Holdings Ltd. is a public limited company established on 2078 BS registered at Company Registrar's Office. Its objective is to work in active as well as passive investment sectors to maximize its shareholder's worth. It has 5 different subsidiaries companies working in the production, trade, investment and distribution sectors.

Currently, this company is directly managing its and subsidiaries companies operations and running all companies in operational profit. Now, the company decides to appoint a Consultant to take care of all its subsidiary companies operations.

The consultants willing to apply on this call must have a team members having at least 10 years of experience of running companies top level management and operation of public limited companies. The remuneration for the capable consultant has no limit but subject to the performance. Consultant will have recommending power to drive and guide the company's operations. However, we recommend to apply only who have confidence to generate not less than 20% Return on Active Capital Employed (ROACE). The remuneration will be directly tied up with the performance and if the growth is negative, there will be provision of compensation model to the company by consultant.

Interested individuals or body of individuals, firms or companies by paying Rs.1,000/- non-refundable fees can get bid form along with the details package of documents so that they can properly study, understand and develop a business proposal. Business proposal must be submitted within 15 days of publishing this notice. Business proposal must have technical components and financial proposal both sealed properly.

The proposals will be opened on 16th day of notice publish (if fall holiday, next office opening day) in presence of available representatives of the proposal submitting consultants. This company reserves all the rights to scan, evaluate, approve or not to approve the submitted proposals. Queries via email will only be entertained.

Lakshya Holdings Ltd.
Metro Park Building, Uttar Dhoka, Lazimpat, Kathmandu
Email: contact@lakshyaholdings.com